Dear Kiwanis Club Members,

It was great having the chance to attend the Kiwanis Law Enforcement Youth Camp at the Washington State Patrol Academy in Shelton, Washington, from July 11, 2010 to July 17, 2010.

Some of my favorite classes included, fish and wild-life. The reason I liked this class was because my intrest in the area. Also the way the class was presented made me more interested because how they set the stuff they used up. And also the stories they told.

Learning about the positions in the WSP and other agencies will help me to better understand their duties as law enforcement officers. Also in being apart of this camp it will help me if I choose to go into law enforcement and even if I choose a different career I will benifit from this experience.

Thank you for your financial support which made this experience possible.

Sincerely,

Cody Everson.
