Thank you so much!
Dearest Spencers,

Attending the Kiwanis Law Enforcement Youth Camp at the Washington State Patrol Academy in Shelton, WA, opened and changed me into a honest, bright-future oriented student.

Some classes that I have thoroughly enjoyed the DT (Defensive Training) classes and the State Troopers presentation.

I was really intrigued with the class on the Federal Bureu of Investigation, presented by FBI special Agent Brvett because of the FBI Career seeming most interesting and appealing to my career focus. I hope to shoot hoops and make goals in each step to get to there, "there" being a career in the FBI.

I was quite impressed with the organization and expectations of this camp. My attitude and professionalism were set to a higher standard. My act has been cleaned up a lot from attending this camp.

While being at this camp, my focus on to a specific career has been set, before this camp, I had no idea where I was going to go, or do in the field of Law Enforcement. I understand much, much more on the laws and duties of the state Agencies. Even if I don't make it to the FBI, I will have knowledge of the other careers, in case I would need to change my focus.
Thank you so much for this opportunity.

Sincerely

Andrew Parvi
