Affidavit

I am a forensic toxicologist employed at the Washington State Toxicology Lab (WSTL) in Seattle, Washington. I have been a forensic toxicologist for 17 years. I am the lab manager of the WSTL and supervise all functioning of the lab and the analysts.

On the Washington State Toxicology Laboratory Results report, the following language appears on certified reports. Due to the limitations of the current software program that we use to generate the reports, the space for the certification statement is very limited and the font is very small and often unreadable. The exact language which appears on these reports is as follows:

The undersigned certifies under penalty of perjury that: I performed the test on the blood or other tissues listed above. The document on which this certificate appears is a true and complete copy of my official report and the test was administered according to WAC 448-14-010 and 020. Such document is a report of the results of tests which report and tests were made by the undersigned whose qualifications and experience are listed below their name in compliance with WAC 448-14-030. The person from whom I received the sample(s) in question is:

I declare under the penalty of perjury that the aforesaid is true and correct. Signed and dated by me this 2nd day of January 2007, at Seattle, Washington.
