DESCRIPTION:

In April and May of 2010, Shinebayar filed insurance claims for personal property he said was stolen from him. An investigation revealed that the personal property was either returned to the retailer before or after the theft, or never purchased, and therefore not in Shinebayar's possession. Shinebayar has a pattern of filing false insurance claims in various states. On May 10, 2011, Shinebayar was charged in King County for theft and insurance fraud. He did not appear for his arraignment and a warrant was issued.
