COURSE ANNOUNCEMENT

Cooperative Courses – Available on Request

Train the Trainer - BTL-015 and SRC-015 -- $405 per class

The 4-hour Train the Trainer course orients department personnel in all areas of the courses under the cooperative system: Burn to Learn and Search and Rescue 1. This course is offered to fire department personnel only.

Burn to Learn Co-op - BTL-010 -- $1235 per class

This 8-hour course follows the same outline as Burn to Learn. The Fire Training Academy will provide the lead Instructor and Safety Officer. This course is offered to fire department personnel only.

Flammable Liquids 4 Co-op – FLC-004 -- $150 per student

This 8-hour course allows fire departments to utilize the flammable liquid field props with no classroom participation. The Fire Training Academy will provide the Safety Officer and Fuel Operator. This course is offered to fire department personnel only.

Multiple Company Operations - MCO-001 -- $700 per class

This 8-hour course is designed to provide opportunities for fire departments to use their own apparatus and equipment on live fires. The Fire Training Academy provides a Course Facilitator to oversee the operation of the course. There is no formal Fire Training Academy instruction provided beyond facility safety and preservation. Fire Departments can make this course as difficult or easy as they desire. It can also be designed to concentrate on specific objectives.

Prerequisites: Departments are required to submit an operational plan to the Fire Training Academy five working days prior to the start of the class. This operational plan should include the lesson plan and course objectives.

Portable Fire Extinguishers Co-op – FXC-102 - $155 per student

This 8-hour course follows the same outline as the Portable Fire Extinguisher class with no classroom participation. The Fire Training Academy will provide the Safety Officer and Fuel Operator. This course is offered to fire department personnel only.

Search and Rescue 1 – SRC-010 -- $775 per class

This 8-hour course follows the same outline as Search and Rescue 1. The Fire Training Academy will provide the Lead Instructor. This course is offered to fire department personnel only.
