WSP Seeking Public's Help in Locating Missing Spokane Woman

The Washington State Patrol is seeking assistance from the public to locate a missing Spokane woman who was last seen June 22, 2009, walking off of the ferry M/V Tacoma, at the Colman Ferry Terminal in Seattle, Washington after the Bainbridge Island to Seattle run.

The woman, 27 year-old Amy Story drove her vehicle aboard the M/V Tacoma for the 2:55 p.m. sailing from Bainbridge Island to Seattle. When the ferry docked at Colman Terminal in Seattle at approximately 3:30 p.m., WSF workers located an abandoned vehicle in the upper wing area of the vessel. The Mitsubishi Galant was registered to Ms. Story. Ferry workers noted several personal items belonging to Ms. Story in the vehicle.

Investigation has revealed Ms. Story walked off the vessel when it arrived in Seattle, leaving her vehicle on the vessel.

Ms. Story is described as a white female, 5'06" tall, 230 pounds, with medium length straight brown hair and green eyes. She was last seen wearing a green striped sweater and blue jeans.

Ms. Story's family indicates she suffers from bi-polar condition and may not be taking her medications. Ms. Story has experienced similar episodes in the past. Ms. Story was visiting relatives in Sequim and may be trying to make her way back to Spokane.

Anyone with information regarding the whereabouts of Ms. Story is asked to call Washington State Patrol Detective Russ Haake at 425-401-7788 – press option 1 when prompted.
