Missing Spokane Woman Located

Amy Story, the 27 year old Spokane woman reported missing after leaving her vehicle aboard a Washington State Ferry was reunited with her family after being located by a Sergeant with the Lake Forest Park Police Department.

On June 25, 2009 at 12:30 a.m. Lake Forest Park Police were dispatched to the area of Ballinger Way and 35th Avenue NE to check the welfare of an adult female who was seen walking in the street hitchhiking. Upon their arrival, Sergeant J. Becker contacted the subject at the Lake Forest Park Market. The subject told Sergeant Becker her car had been stolen from a ferry. The subject identified herself as Amy Story and Sergeant Becker determined she was the person reported missing from the Washington State Ferry M/V Tacoma earlier on the afternoon of June 21. Sergeant Becker reunited Ms. Story with her family who were staying in a local motel.

The Washington State Patrol appreciates the assistance from the public and law enforcement partners in locating Ms. Story and reuniting her with her family.
