PRESS RELEASE
For Immediate Release

The Washington State Patrol Cold Case Unit and the Clarkston Police Department are collaboratively investigating the 1990 unsolved homicide of Toni Ann Tedder.

Tedder, who was 18 at the time of her death, died from a knife wound July 28th, 1990 while sleeping on a couch at the family home on the 500 block of 7th Street. There were other people in the home at the time. A wooden handled fishing fillet type knife with a 6 inch blade was found at the scene and it's believed to be the murder weapon.

Numerous interviews have been conducted over the years and leads followed, however no arrests have been made.

Anyone with information that may be helpful to our investigation is urged to contact the Clarkston Police Department at 509-758-1680 or contact WSP Detective Sgt. Stacy Moate at Stacy.Moate@WSP.WA.GOV or CPD Detective Sgt. Bryon Denny at bdenny@clarkstonpolice.org.
