Message From the Chief

Thank you for taking the time to review the Washington State Patrol’s Strategic Plan for January 2019 to January 2022.

We are an organization of approximately 2,200 employees split evenly between commissioned and civilian employees. The troopers who patrol the more than 18,000 lane miles of state roadways were busy. Last year, troopers made 1,003,827 contacts with drivers, answered more than 208,500 calls for service, investigated more than 50,500 collisions, and took 14,386 impaired drivers off the road. The employees who responded to these calls did an outstanding job of providing “Service with Humility.” None of this would have been possible without the commitment, dedication, and hard work of our commissioned and civilian employees.

The purpose of this strategic plan is to have everyone moving in the same direction. We have to set aside time, get out of our day-to-day responses, and look toward the future. What should our focus be a year from now? Where should we be four years from now? What will success look like?

Our goals identified for this strategic plan over the next three years include: 1) Make the Washington State Patrol a Great Place to Work; 2) Make Our Highways Safe; 3) Provide Specialized Investigative, Forensic, and Support Services; 4) Secure Communities From Terrorism, Fire, and Disaster Risk; and 5) Sustain and Enhance Agency Infrastructure and Business Processes.

Three years seems like a long time, and things can change. Regardless, it’s important to start with a road map. If detours are necessary, adjustments can be made. We should, and will, remain flexible. Please know this isn’t a document that, once complete, sits on a shelf. Every 60 days the commanders of our various districts and divisions come before the Executive Staff to outline their successes and challenges. They are measured against the goals outlined in this strategic plan, and they know I take those goals very seriously.

With good people and a good plan, there is no limit to what we can accomplish in the name of public safety.

Thank you for taking time to review this document.

Sincerely,

Chief John R. Batiste
